

You are invited to participate in the 9th annual Art & Soul of Pueblo Street Gallery Exhibit.

The Street Gallery, a public sculpture exhibit located in Downtown Pueblo, encompasses much of the central Downtown area, beginning just one block from I-25. The exhibit area contains many of Pueblo's amenities, including the Arts Center, Convention Center, Buell Children's Museum, El Pueblo History Museum and the Riverwalk. The Downtown Art Project's Art & Soul Street Gallery is a cooperative effort of several organizations including the Pueblo Downtown Association, Pueblo Arts Council, Pueblo Chamber of Commerce, Pueblo Community College, Sangre de Cristo Arts & Conference Center and local artists.

Awards include a cash prize for the Alpha Mu Delta Award of Excellence and a $500 People's Choice Award. To enter, please complete the entry form below.

Entry Guidelines

- Art & Soul Street Gallery is an outdoor public project; all proposed works will be screened to insure durability and artistic merit prior to acceptance.
- Exhibited works will be displayed for one year from September 2009 to September 2010. The artist certifies that the sculpture is suitable for outdoor exhibition, that materials are durable and will withstand the weather and attentions of the public.
- Participating artists will be asked to deliver their sculpture to downtown Pueblo for installation on September 18, 2009.
- All selected works are exhibited for sale and subject to a 25% commission to Art & Soul Street Gallery.
- The Art & Soul Street Gallery will feature participating artists in promotional materials and on our web site. Artists will be contacted to confirm entry selection. Detailed installation information will be provided.

For more information, call Margaret Ward Masias at 719-543-7155, Judy McGinnis at 719-252-3873 or Peggy Willcox at 719-564-6338.
